

The law affects many areas of our lives, and art is no exception. It is becoming increasingly important for artists to be aware of how the law affects them and their work.

Several sources for answers to questions on art and copyrights are:

"Law and the Art World" by Attorney Bill Frazier
Written in "Art of the West - 2009 Guidebook of Art"

"What Every Artist Should Know About Copyright" by Leonard Duboff (former law professor and practicing attorney)
Published in "Artists Magazine" www.artistsmagazine.com

"Copying Photographs" and "Copying Artwork" published in the "Ask the Experts" section of Artists Magazine, April 2007
